

they alone must be willing to accept His word do as He says, in order to be in constant touch with Him.

all you need is to acknowledge to God, that you have sinned, do it all sincerely, within your heart, ask for forgiveness, and then go on living in hope, with strict divine commandments You, to inspire and guide you. Place all your problems in God's hands! each day, pray, and then set your mind on some worthy plans for future.
Don't worry about what will happen to you, because what ever will happen will be for your own good. Resist yourself to meet any problem whether you like it or not, as long as it is good that God is opening new life for you, because He loves you - maybe you will have to do something which is your faith word, just meet each problem with courage and faith that it happened for your good!

Be humble, still continuing your temperment and morality, remember you
