

Thank you for your letter of 7/6/64.

March 9, 1964

Hello, Mr Ruby:

I realize these are trying days for you - and it would take a feat Herculeses to withstand the hammering of a person's thoughts, from the time his ancestors did or didn't do some darn thing. Jack Ruby - I think you were the one who did what there had to be done, at the exact second that it had to be done.

There has been a small rift in my few remaining relatives, ^{re:} with my feelings regarding it. But, thank God - everyone to his own. My sister who is - oh - some darn thing - Regent in American Colonists, and Colonial Dames of Early America, also of Daughters of the American Revolutionists DAR, she is on the podium reading the Bible, etc. There are people who like to preach - and there are nice quiet people who know, without joining a fancy dress group. (with lunch included)
