Warren Investigation

Sir: By devoting your cover (Feb. 14) to showing a picture of the wife of the man who assassinated our late President, you are glorifying the most despicable crime—assassination.

MRS. F. A. STRAUB

Los Angeles

Sir: To encourage people to come to a conclusion before the commission has announced its findings is to undermine one of the basic principles of our legal system.

The more the evidence seems to point in one direction, the more important it is to remind ourselves that everyone must be assumed innocent until proved guilty. To do otherwise is to adopt the logic of a lynch mob.

JOHN T. ENNIS

New York City

Sir: TIME has become so melodramatic! Your story of Marina Oswald's life made me feel like the "constant weeder" who "frowed up" in Dorothy Parker's remark.

The plastic roses on Oswald's grave were just too much.

MRS. RICHARD H. DICKSON

Indianapolis

Sir: For the first time since those dreadful November days, I felt a pang of pity for Lee Harvey Oswald. Imagines having something for a mother.

Mrs. DON GARGARO

Detroit

Sir: As a mother, I wish it were possible to read your cover to my mother—and father—to read your cover to Marguerite Claverie Pic Oswald Ek Dahl, mother of Lee Harvey Oswald. Through her seemingly warped personality, her failure to provide a modicum of healthy home environment, her unwillingness or inability to cooperate with professional people and public officials, Marguerite Claverie Pic Oswald Ek Dahl plays an unenviable role in the circumstances leading to the assassination of John F. Kennedy. She wants to go down in history? Well, history is replete with unsavory personalities.

ELIZABETH V. PARKER

Randolph, Vt.

If you ever need friends or a quiet place to get your bearings when all these troubles are over you are always welcome in our home. My husband and I remain this sincerely.

Try to bear up under your troubles and be of good courage. I know God has forgiven you if you did wrong. He can see into your heart if no one else can and He understands. Put your faith in Him and He will see you through.

So again I wish you well and hope you will be acquitted.

I remain, sincerely,
your friend
