Dear Mr. Ruby:

I hope you don't mind my using the red part of my typewriter ribbon, but the black side is all used out, this is the best I can do, I felt that a typed letter would be better than a hand-written letter. My cousin Eddie Sterchi sent you a letter some weeks ago, I always wanted to write a letter to you, but I wasn't sure of the correct mailing address, so after he got a reply from you, I decided to write you. I know that you have lots of troubles on your mind at this time, so I'm not really expecting a reply letter from you. There must be hundreds of people that are wishing you the very best of luck to you in this case and I'm one of them along with my cousin. I have never been in jail and I hope that I never am, so I can't say what its like, but my cousin has and he knows what its like and he told you so in his letter. Once again, I want to wish you the best in your fight against the shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald. I don't know how this case will turn out, but its always good to hope and pray for the best, so this will be all for now.

Yours truly,

Robert Jama

Robert Jama.

P.S. Everyone felt sorry when the late President Kennedy was shot in your good city and so did I. I've been to Texas once in my life and that was over two years ago. I went to San Antonio to see the Alamo, I've read many books and seen many (cont'd.)
