Mr. Jack Ruby:

Dear friend Mr. Ruby:

Thank you for your kind note in answer to my first letter. Now that your trial has started I sincerely hope and wish you all the first class luck in the world for a speedy and complete aquittal and release. To my estimation you harmed no one, broke no law of common sense to either God or Man. If you did the thing you are accused of, then I say you done all humanity a Great Favor. You exterminated off the face of this earth a Dirty Rat in Human Form. A Dirty Rat by its poisonous bite took the lives of two decent human beings and made an unsuccessful attempt to put the bite on two others. What was to stop him from biting again had opportunity arose. And believe me this opportunity has arose many times much to the regret of others. I've served on jurys before, once on the federal jury, and were I on your jury with ten others like me, you'd be released so damn quick it would make old Judge Browns head swim and Wade ~~leave~~ the bar.

Again I say Good Luck and Best Wishes to a great American Hero Mr. Jack Ruby. may fate treat him kindly.

Mr. A. Stephenson.

P.S. Drop me a line if allowed. I'd like to hear from you again.
