

1. Q. WHY DID YOU GO TO THE USSR?

I went as a citizen of the U.S. (as a tourist) residing in a foreign country which I have a perfect right to do. I went there to see all the land, the people and how their system works.

Q. What about those letters? I made no letters describing the U.S.!!
In correspondence with the U.S. Embassy I made no criticism in statements, my criticism I might have had was of Khrushchev's government.

2. Q. DID YOU MAKE STATEMENTS AGAINST THE U.S. THERE? NO

What about that tape recording? I made a recording for the Moscow Journal Radio Travel log, in which I spoke about sight-seeing and what I had seen in Moscow tourist circles. I expressed delight in all the interesting places, I mentioned in this respect the University, Museum of Art, Red Square, the Kremlin and so on. I closed this recording by saying I hoped war people would live in peace and for

3. DID YOU BREAK LAWS BY READING OR TAKING WORK IN THE USSR, under U.S. law a person may lose the protection of the U.S. by writing or serving in the armed forces of a foreign state or taking an oath of allegiance to that state. I did none of these.

4. Is all work in the USSR considered state work?

NO. Technically only plants working directly for the state, usually defense, and all other plants are owned by the workers who work in them.

5. What about statements you made to U.P.I. agent Miss Dwyer in 1959?

I was approached at that time of my arrival in the USSR just after I had formally notified the U.S. Embassy in Moscow of my future residence in the USSR. My by the newspaper agencies in Moscow including U.P.I. and Time Inc. who were notified by the Embassy I did not call them. I answered questions and gave statements to Miss Dwyer of U.P.I. I requested her to let me see her story before she released it, which is the polite and usual thing. She sent me a version of what I said just after she sent it. I immediately called her to complain about this, at which time she apologized but said her editor and not her had added several things. She said London was very excited about the story that is how I deduced that she had already
