 radio engineer he went to school during and after the war in the east where his family took him during the evacuation moved still further east after an all out attack at a drive by the nazis in which his mother was killed after finishing his schooling at the age of 19, he met Russian boys he was drafted into the army, served in Hungary when the Soviet Revolution broke out as a soldier, when asked who started the war he says "American imperialism" and "spies" when asked who he killed he says "I didn't kill anyone" when asked who was killed during the revolution he says "Hungarians" asked what he thinks of that revolution he says it was a glorious victory by our forces" SMILICH also tells a story about how one Russian newly arrived with the occupation force was walking down the street when he came upon a group of young Hungarian children, one of them was afraid he would be shot and he look at me so hard I thought he must know me, one of the young people came forward and asked for a match, just then a Hungarian people policeman" came around the corner "this is probably what saved ~~the~~ life the police shouted just as one of the young people came up behind him and hit him on the head, when he awoke there were three of the group dead and the others run away" obviously a revolution of spies and imperialism I filed.
