Unfortunately, there is no way for me to prove that there ^{are} enough informed Americans to warrent you taking a stand at this time. However, I am personally convinced that there is. An even if there are not, YOU can not afford to hold back now knowlege you may have that could well stop the Communist juggernaut! You MUST gamble that a courageous step taken by you now is worth the RISK involved—the stakes in the survival of our American Heritage are too high!!

Have courage,

Robert E. Heckert
