The Dallas Morning News
Dallas, Texas

Gentlemen:

The inspiration of this letter is the old Chinese custom of acknowledgement and payment of debts at each new year.

Like many people I feel a debt of gratitude is owed to Police Chief Jesse Curry and the members of the Dallas force.

The assassin of President Kennedy, a self-confessed Marxist, was promptly caught, and at all times the public was kept informed of developments.

Actually, the developments on Sunday November 24, resulted from the desire of members of all news media to report the transfer of Oswald from the jurisdiction of Police Chief Curry, and no blame should be attached to the Dallas force.

In retrospect it is well the American people know of the events prior to November 24. Police Chief Curry reported truthfully, but many wonder if President Johnson's Special Commission, headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren, will as frankly and as promptly report its findings.

Anyway, I wish to publically voice my gratitude to Police Chief Curry and the members of his force.

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Lois E. Wright

Dear Chief Curry:

The original of this letter was mailed to the Dallas News today, and although I could have written to you personally, I wanted you to know that my feelings are strong enough to attempt publication of my views. Many thanks for a job well done.

Sincerely,
