Dear Chief Cunniff:

I'm enclosing a clipping that our newspaper woman, who is covering the Ruby case in your city.

In reading it in our local paper, as she has, it truly gives us a closer feeling toward our officials in Dallas.

Chief Cunniff, Dallas, has lost nothing in the way of prestige.

And to say, in conversations most everywhere one hears the case mentioned,

(which is as the Sheppard murder case, was in our own city in 1954) the same words of praise are heard, for your prosecuting attorney and your very fine judge.

Believe me when I tell you, our hearts and prayers are with you all
