Dear Mr. Stevey:

Your letter of December 1st has been forwarded to the proper authorities for delivery to Mrs. Oswald.

Our department has no knowledge as to the whereabouts of Mrs. Oswald, nor do we know anything about her future plans.

base note I would not touch one dime of any money possessed by Mrs Oswald that is hers.
I can and will help her case for her children, but she must remain truthfull and fair to them always.

Thank you Sir for the above.
But may I ask that if my two letters to you are not destroyed, I have this request, from the local Papers, it is so stated that the F.B.I. supposedly has the Mrs Oswald somewhere in your state so I must presume under safe surveillance. There is an item regarding a Mrs Witherson or a similar name I have it here but will not search for it. The item you would stated in effect that a sum of 7000 collected by has been turned over to the F.B.I.
