

Bell Street
London W.1.
Wednesday.

Dear Sir,

I have read extracts from the Book "Who Killed Kennedy" and I am horrified with same, I have had 25 years experience of public work.
"Retired" and I am sorry to say I indict you and public in the brutal murder of a good good man, the late Mr Kennedy.

I have studied every aspect of the Case, and I can only come to one conclusion that - you are an uncivilized people in Dallas, you think the World will forget that awful planned Murder. No you stand in the eyes of all the civilized people of the West as a horrible example of public as they should be. May God forgive you. I am as stated a retired British public officer. We have law, and order. but I regret to say your law is one of hatred and the law of the gun. It is clearly shown where you were that day - that you would stand still - you were the outside that murder Plot Building
