BEFORE ME, Mary Patton

a Notary Public in and for said County, State of Texas, on this day personally appeared _____

W. C. Day, Dallas Police Department

Who, after being by me duly sworn, on oath deposes and says: When testifying before the President's Commission, I stated I did not remember who returned the two spent 6.3 shells and envelope to my possession on the night of November 21, 1963. Since returning to Dallas Detective C. W. Thority has called my attention to the fact he brought the three shells in the envelope to me and asked me to check them again for fingerprints even though I had checked them when they were picked up on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository about 1:25 pm November 22, 1963. Detective W. J. Sims and myself and placed in a manila envelope. Since talking to Thority I remember now that he saw the one shell returned the shells to me about 10:00 pm and stated that his office wanted to retain one. He left me two shells and the envelope that Detective Sims and I had previously marked. It was then that I scratched my name on the two shells that were released at 11:45 pm to Agent Vince Drain along with the rifle and other evidence.
