

When you have something on your mind... that plagues you endlessly... talk things over with the Lord... and soon you will be free... however great your problem... the Lord will show the way... so much can be accomplished... if you sincerely pray... friends will often forsake you... leaving your heart to frown... but the Lord will listen and... He will not let you down... He gives strength to the weary... and faith to those afraid... eternally dependable... He helps us make the grade... so you should seek the Master... in all you try to do... however rough the path may be... the Lord will see you through.

Dear Mr Ruby,
I am one of the many people who believe in you. Like you, I also loved the President, He was Holy to me way before people ever really thought about him.

I know you will go free and sure God has forgiven you, you represent the millions of us who wanted to see justice done. We are all on trail with you and believe in you for what you have done.

God Bless you Jack
I was at all the Air Force Fields you were at in the States, you probably slept next to me. If you could write and tell me how you feel Please do. Enclose is a poem that may help you through these days.
