

Clays Lane
Balto. Md 21207
Feb. 20, 1964

Dear Jack,

Would you please write to me and let me know if you received this letter, this poem, this cross and most of all this valentine.

The valentine that I'm sending to you is a symbol. To let you know I understand first hand a person can do a thing that under normal conditions would not think of doing. several days later would give anything if only it could be undone. The valentine was returned to me in yesterday's mail from my very favorite and most dear female friend because on January 2nd 1964, I did something over which I had no control. No one but myself knows I really couldn't help it but I couldn't, I couldn't, I couldn't. With you being a man you wouldn't know the almost unbearable pain a woman does go through on bringing a baby into this world. I have brought six into the world and am in the position to say MENTAL TORTURE is far greater. You must not worry Jack; I have written to Wade, Belli, Brown and Stone. I have warned them that should they decide on the death penalty for you the LORD is going to be greatly angered. I can not predict in 1878

XERO

XERO

XERO