Dear Mr. Ruby,

As I sit here sadly reading an article about Jackie Kennedy and how bravely and beautifully she bore her husband's death and think how tearfully and badly I bore it, I thought of you.

When I heard that magnificent man was assassinated I was so overcome with disbelief and grief and anger that my only repeating thoughts were oh no God please no - Then I saw the picture on T.V. of that cocky, nothing of a human being and thought - why doesn't someone kill him - who would not kill a Judas - but then I wasn't thinking sanely.

I don't believe you've brought shame to Dallas. The shame was there long before - the spitting on the Johnsons, the assault on Adlai Stevenson, the hate articles in the papers & finally
