

it was you must have been a little out of your mind or you would have not done it. In other words you are guilty of murder but of murder of an assassin a man that most surely did kill because he had involved it other attempts to murder.

I have been reading in the 'San Antonio light' about the election of a jury for your trial. It seems to me that they are getting people that agree on a death sentence, and not only agree on it but say they can and will sentence you the chair because you are guilty.

Well, we all know we can put you there, but the question is if we may. They are doing to you what you did to Oswald, convicting you before a chance of a trial. "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth" says the old testament. I want to remind them that we are not Jewish, we are Christians. Jesus commanded to love one another, to return kindness for unkindness and passed to us the commandments given to Moses by God and one of them was or
