

9/2/64

Dear Mr. Jack Ruby,

You don't know me but I'm a friend of the Stephensons, the people who have been writing to you quite often now, to see how you were. My name is Bob Irwin and I'm very sorry about the misfortune you're in, and I'm speaking for all my friends.

Mr. Ruby, I don't know if this letter means anything to you but I just want to write to you anyway, kind of to cheer you up if I can. Mr. Ruby I'd be very grateful to you if you would please write back to me, I would always treasure your letter, my address is:

4835 Katherine
Dearborn Heights, Michigan

My parents the Stephensons and myself wish you all the luck that can come to you.

Sincerely Yours,
Bob Irwin
