Dear Jack,

I just received your letter and I am so very glad to hear from you. I hope you are feeling well.

Please don't worry about me, Jack, or anything I do. I can make my own decisions, now, and also withstand any consequences which might result from them.

You were always so good to me and I won't let you down now. I am proud to be your friend and I don't care if it is shouted to the world. If only
