Dear Mr. Ruby,

You have been much in my thoughts and prayers since November 24th, when first we saw your name in the newspapers and heard it in the news on the radio and television. Although I do not know you, the Lord spoke to me to write you a note of encouragement. Although the act you committed cannot be recalled, it is now in the past. The Lord still loves you and He wants you to repent of this deed and He will be willing to forgive you. All you have to do is recognize that you are
