

is done. There is no other way. Remember, they want the job done just as bad as you want the money; and after this is done, they may want to use you again."

Lee: "Not that it makes no any difference, but what have you got against the Governor?"

Ruby: "He won't work with us on paroles; with a few of the right boys out we could really open up this State, with a little cooperation from the Governor. The boys in Chicago have no place to go, no place to really operate; they've clamped down the lid in Chicago; Cuba is closed; everything is dead, look at this place, half empty; if we can open up this State we could pack this place every night, those boys will spend, if they have the money; and remember, we're right next to Mexico; there'd be money for everybody, if we can open up this State."

Lee: "How do you know that the Governor won't work with you?"

Ruby: "Its no use, he's been in Washington too long; they're too straight up there; after they've been there awhile they get to thinking like the Attorney General. The Attorney General, now there's a guy the boys would like to get, but its no use, he stays in Washington too much."

Lee: "A rifle shoots as far in Washington as it does here, doesn't it?"

Ruby: "Forget it, that would bring the heat on everywhere, and the Feds would get into everything, no, forget about the Attorney General."

Lee: "Killing the Governor of Texas will put the heat on too, won't it?"

Ruby: "Not really, they'll think some crack-pot or communist did it, and it will be written off as an unsolved crime."

Lee: "That is if I get away."

Ruby: "You'll get away, all you have to do is run out the back door."

Lee: "What kind of door is there back there, it won't accidentally lock on me will it?"

Ruby: "No, you can get out that way without any trouble."
