

Q. Did you talk to Jack the day of the shooting?

A. Yes, maybe around 10:00 or 10:30. I needed $25.00 to pay my rent and he said he had to go downtown anyway, so he would send it to Western Union in Ft. Worth. Jack seemed upset. I picked the money up at Western Union ten minutes after we heard he had shot Oswald. I was afraid they would keep the money or something, since Jack had sent it, but ~~it~~ they gave it to me without question. When I talked to him that morning, he sounded like his ~~voice~~^{voice} was going to crack any minute and he did sound like he had been crying and was very upset. I had to keep saying Jack, Jack are you there ~~ix~~ and he would just say yes.

Q. Have you talked to Jack since the shooting?

A. No, I have not. I don't want any pictures taken. That's why I haven't been up to see him. Joy Dale got a letter today, he said to tell everyone hello for him.

Q. Did Jack seem to worry a lot?

A. Yes, he was always concerned about someone's welfare. He was worried about me and the baby. He had deep emotions and always tried to help everyone.

Q. Did he ever have headaches?

A. Yes, a few times I had to go pick up his pills at the store.

Q. Do you feel Jack felt worse (bad) more times than good?

A. Yes. He went to some doctor three weeks ago.

Q. Did Jack ever cry around the Club.

A. No.

Q. Did Jack have the reputation for going to bed with every girl in the Club?

A. No.

Q. Did he ever attempt it with you.

A. One time in a joking way after I told him I was going to leave my husband he said something like "let me have first choice or if the baby needs a name".

Q. Do you think the average stripper would say he tried to take them to bed?

A. Yes, I do.
