"While guns are moving freely to Mexico and South America in the biggest arms-running racket in history, they want to stop ownership of guns at home.
And Dallas is the halfway point between the gun-runner centre - Chicago and Mexico."

"I object to any registration or restriction law because then they would be able to recall the guns from the records when the time comes" he said.
"This is just another link part of the communist takeover."

"We are not extremists— just normal patriotic Americans"
