Chief of Police Jesse Curry
Police Department
Dallas, Texas

Dear Chief Curry:

Some of my young students have become concerned that Mrs. Marina Oswald and her children might not have a very happy Christmas. Under the leadership of a nine-year-old girl they are bringing small gifts and greeting cards for a Christmas box to be sent to this family. I have promised that when the box is ready I will send it.

Can you tell me where the box should be sent? I have read that the Secret Service is holding Mrs. Oswald in protective custody, and of course no location has been disclosed. I presume that any package would have to be sent to, or through, the Secret Service.

We will be pushed for time if the box is to be delivered in time for Christmas. If you can tell me how the package should be addressed, or if you would have a way of seeing to it that it was delivered, I would very much appreciate your letting me know as soon as you conveniently can. The youngsters are so anxious to let Mrs. Oswald know that we sympathize and wish to help, that I want to do everything possible to assure delivery of their Christmas box on time.

Will you wire or telephone me collect?

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Ann Ware
