Dear Mr. Squires:

I regret that I am not able to make available to you a copy of the homicide report written on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, which you requested in your letter of January 20, 1964.

It is believed that it would be improper for us to permit the use of an official document of this Department in the commercial publication of your book.

Again, I regret that we are unable to assist you.

Very truly yours,

J. B. Curry
Chief of Police
