Dear Officer Curry;

I am truly sorrowed at the dastardly act which was supposedly committed by the man held in your jail. I realize that your job has kept you busy more than usual with this occurent slaying, but I would sincerely appreciate your telling me of the suspicions, composition, and chase of the charged Mr. Oswald. I do not wish to pry, but I am truly interested in the kind of man who would do such a cowardly act.

I realize that many things will keep you busy, but any reply which you will be able to make will be appreciated.

Thank you,

John D. Watson
