Dear Miss Pallas:

I think that no one person is going to be able to answer the question you posed in your letter of April 10, 1964.

At the present time, as prior to the assassination of President Kennedy, Dallas has as many images as there are persons viewing. There are undoubtedly some persons who have a low opinion of Dallas because of the events that occurred here, but I suspect many others realize that the assassination of the President was the work of an individual and not the work of a city. I suspect that in the minds of many the image of Dallas has not suffered because of the regrettable tragedy that occurred here.

Very truly yours,

J. B. Curry
