

24 January, 1969

Clay Shaw Trial Has 4 Jurors

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Two jurors were seated Wednesday for the trial of Clay Shaw, charged with conspiring to murder President John F. Kennedy. Both survived rigorous questioning.

The jurors have been asked whether they thought the Warren Commission was right in saying that Lee Harvey Oswald shot Kennedy, working alone for reasons unknown.

The only acceptable answer to both state and defense was "I have no opinion."

Four jurors were seated in the first two days of what the prosecution predicts might be a two-month hearing. It resumes today with efforts continuing to select a jury.

Two chosen Wednesday were William Ricks Jr., 31, a public teacher, and Charles D. Gartin, 39, assembly line supervisor at a can manufacturing plant.

Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison has rejected the Warren Commission conclusions, charging that Shaw, 55, a retired businessman, conspired with Oswald and others to assassinate Kennedy.

The defense issued new subpoenas including one for Mrs. Ruth Hyde Paine of Irving, Texas, who befriended Oswald's mother during periods of her husband's work.

This article taken from the DALLAS TIMES HERALD, dated 23 January, 1969.

Piggio

2965-115 ✓