Mr. William J. Alexander,
Assistant District Attorney,
Dallas, Texas.

Dear Mr. Alexander:

It is very significant that both <sup>of the</sup> jurors for Jack Ruby's trial are College graduates, and both are Baptists. <sup>It is</sup> ~~It is~~ largely through higher education that ~~that~~ the people of this modern age have been brainwashed by <sup>People who have</sup> ~~ungodly~~ psychiatry. <sup>People who have</sup> ~~un~~ <sup>higher</sup> ~~education~~ <sup>do more good than</sup> ~~has~~ <sup>higher education</sup> ~~has~~ <sup>non with 12</sup> ~~with~~ <sup>the</sup> ~~right~~ <sup>to</sup> ~~of~~ <sup>college</sup> ~~and~~ <sup>higher education</sup> ~~might~~ <sup>and</sup> ~~even~~ <sup>might</sup> ~~to~~ <sup>have</sup> ~~an~~ <sup>extraordinarily good</sup> ~~education~~ myself, I can honor an old negro woman of Dallas for saying, "Educated folks think they've got the world in their hands, but they ain't got nater". There is a <sup>possibility</sup> ~~possibility~~ that College graduates, in general, are not  $\frac{1}{2}$  as happy as that old negro woman is.
