Church men could give ^{Belli's} pleasing answers to the questions, "what do you think about the unconverted Jews, psychiatry, and a man who runs a strip-tease joint?" The second Baptist juror's remark, "Rudy's strip-tease ^{enterprise} ~~business~~ is his own business" is a good example of what I have said about the Baptists. It is obvious that ~~reproachable work~~ business is every decent person's business, either negatively or positively, whether a man goes to Hell and takes others with him is every Christian's business; as well as

The fact that Baptists, in general, ~~take this attitude toward~~ have this philosophy about sin is verified by the following facts:

(1) 90% of the Baptists are always saying, "you are saved 100% - by the Grace of God, and not at all by good works, nor by Righteousness." ^{See} the Righteousness of every man is as filthy rags. ~~The~~ Christ's giving this
