

in the virgin Birth of Jesus Christ, then it would be alright for all the jurors to be Baptists, since the Baptists believe in the Creation story in Genesis and in the virgin Birth of Jesus Christ.

Another great significance to the fact that both juror ~~jurors~~ depend on Christian doctrines against attacks on Baptists is that Baptists in general are justly secularists, and lusty regularists are the kind of people who would give pleasing answers to Bell's questions about the non-evangelical Jews, psychiatry, and a strip-tease business.

~~The Baptists played the leading role in bringing about the Supreme Court decision regarding the Supreme Court's decision regarding Religion and public schools, which is secularism. ~~took~~ decision was ^{upheld} secularism.~~

~~But~~ The Baptists, in general, doesn't have to accept Jesus Christ, in order to have basic freedom and liberty or any other basic value of in government circles or in other secular fields, which philosophy is wicket secularism.

~~But~~ The Baptists give a secularistic interpretation of the 13th. Chapter of