

The Book of Romans, <sup>10 times</sup> more so than does any other denomination. ~~interpret the Chapter's verse~~ <sup>where the Baptists</sup> ~~interpret Paul's statement~~, <sup>Polycarpus</sup> ~~Polycarpus~~ are ministers of God, to mean that they are ministers of God in every thing they do as policemen. This is ungodly secularism. Paul meant here that policemen are ministers of God when they enforce Commandments of God. ~~if any man keeps and enforces~~ ~~Commandments of God, it is just as~~ ~~a minister of God, it is just as~~ ~~to call him a minister of God, when~~ ~~he enforces~~ ~~the~~ ~~might~~ ~~enforce~~ ~~other~~ ~~Commandments~~ ~~of~~ ~~God~~ ~~whether~~ ~~he~~ ~~said~~ ~~that~~ ~~he~~ ~~is~~ ~~a~~ ~~minister~~ ~~of~~ ~~God~~ ~~(period)~~ ~~at~~ ~~other~~ ~~words~~ ~~and~~ ~~to~~ ~~deny~~ ~~this~~ ~~is~~ ~~ungodly~~ ~~secularism~~ ~~through~~ ~~Religion~~, and to deny this is Baptist secularism.

All of such lusty secularism on the part of Baptists, <sup>one thing which</sup> ~~is~~ <sup>caused</sup> Belli to accept only Baptists as jurors, thus far.

Nearly all the things I have said in this letter about the Baptists' lusty secularism, I have also said to the Editor of "The Baptist Standard" in
