Mr. Jack Ruby
County Jail
Dallas, Texas

Dear Sir,
November 22, 1963, became a sad day for all Americans. Throughout the United States and the world, people were shocked by the brutality and pain inflicted and felt by our President, John F. Kennedy. America was embarrassed in utter shame and disbelief. As if the shame was not enough, you, Mr. Ruby, with the same brutality and pain struck down Lee Oswald. Our country, looked up to by the other free countries, as the land of freedom and justice, displayed the savagery of the barbaric Huns. With your weapon you sent to the
