Mr. Jack Ruby -

Many people have written to you and said that it is such a wonderful thing for killing Mr. Earl Warren. I've written to say that the opposite is true.

Now, have I heard of anyone doing an act that would interfere more with the wishes and the respect of the United States Government?

Some people say you're patriotic. Don't you know you did more harm than good? You actually hurt the United States by killing the man that could have told us what happened. Now we may never know.

You're just as guilty of committing a crime as the man who killed the President of the United States.
