Dear Mr. Rubinstein,

I trust you have been thinking, while there in that lonely cell. We know there were some good intentions in your mind but God has to keep His laws, "Vengeance is mine, Saith the Lord, The laws of the land are ordained by Him."

Life can be beautiful. I don't know if you have ever thought on the glad news, but I plead with you, take it seriously, apply it to your heart.

Jack, we can receive joy from God's hand obeying the voice of
