MESSAGE

Dear Mrs Ruby:
I noted in the San Antonio light that you wondered about the reaction of the public to your recent actions.
People in general and newspaper editorial opinion across the nation regard you as a most stupid and senseless action on your part, as do I. You have denied due process to an accused - his right no matter what he has done to a fair trial. Further, you have caused all of us to have a sense of complete frustration - by your senseless act, you have prevented the country and world from ever knowing the truth about Oswald's crime. And lastly, have hurt our country in the eyes of the world - where was the traditional sense of American fair play and justice in your setting yourself up as judge, jury and executioner? The Communists are having a propaganda field day.

REPLY

So how do we feel? We are disgusted, frustrated, and angered at you. You would have done better to have shot yourself.
P.S. In commemorating you for a medal for your murder of Oswald, your lawyer is an assinine fool.
