

(1)

Tuesday Nov 26, 1963

P O Box 73

Conroyville, Ky.

Jack Rubinstein;
Dallas Co. Jail.
Dallas, Texas.

Dear Jack,

I don't believe theres anyway in Gods name you will remember me from this letter alone. My name is Sackett & Coley.
I came to Dallas in 1961. You were the first man in Texas to do anything for me, and I haven't forgotten it. You knew of a place that was doing some hiring + sent me to them, it was through you that I got the job. I met you through a friend I had in Dallas, even tho we only met a few times I felt as if I had known you all my life. At that time Jack people teased me all the time about being from Ky + being so little, so that's what they called me "the little Kentuckian".
Jack, theres something that I would like to say, I don't what good it will do but I feel you might like to hear it.

It was a sad + tragic thing that happened in Dallas, Texas. On the day of Nov 22, 1963. It will be felt with heart ache, sadness, + grief for many years to come. Like all other American Citizens I will feel it also.

Jack, I believe in Gods laws, + rules of life. He says "Eye for an eye" and "tooth for a tooth". Then He says "You shall not kill". So who knows what right?

Nov 25-59