Dear Jack, I wish to Congratulate you with all my heart for your gallant action in blowing the stomach out of that despicable thing Oswald. How I wish that I could have helped you do it. Don't worry Jack, you could see what countless millions of people applaud, thousands of whom would be only too glad to kill the thing themselves.

Do not on any account reproach yourself for what you did, and no matter what the Law says, the killing of Oswald was not murder. It was a justly administered sentence. We all share your feelings about your assassination of your beloved President. We too loved him and counted him as one of our own. We love and respect his gallant wife and her family.

We shall never forget his visit to this Country, and particularly his visit to this City of mine Galway on June 27th last. That was only five years ago. He graduated in his Person, new hope for the future not alone for America but for the world. We just could not afford to lose such a man.

I would gladly change places with you Jack, just to have the great honor of administering justice to the murderer of John F. Kennedy. It is an added honor for you to bear the name of Jack, as we often refer to the late President affectionately as Jack Kennedy.

I appreciate your motives in administering
