

Swift Justice to this thing. It will help to spare Mr Kennedy, and the Kennedy family the sickening experience of having this horrible Crime reconstructed and repeated throughout what could be a lengthy trial.

You may have cheated the law in exercising the normal process of trial and punishment, but you have done a lot of good in alleviating for the President's family the unnecessary and avoidable pain and suffering, which would inevitably spring from a lengthy trial.

For the long run the People are the Law and millions of people throughout the world applaud what you have done.

You may be charged with murder in the name of the Law, but you are already acquitted by the largest jury that ever pronounced a verdict.
A jury drawn from this world which owes so much to J.F.K.
With all good wishes and many thanks for a job well and truly done.

Yours Sincerely.
