Dear Mr. Ruby,

Please don't feel guilty about what has happened.

You did what every real man in the country felt like doing at that moment.

Your act was just in the eyes of God and man.

May I suggest that during the trial you conduct yourself with dignity, and if asked admit that you feel sorrow for what you did. If you do this you can't go wrong.

Best regards,

Don Bebout
