Dear Jack;

In your hours of trouble I want you to know that millions of Americans are with you! You only did what most people, in their hearts, wanted to do. You executed a foul black hearted beast in the shape of a human being. Too bad he had to die so quickly. You should have shot him you know where.

Jim, naturally unknown to you. Jim thirty nine, a WWII veteran, navy, and a family man. Just a small voice, as of now, praising you. Don't be discouraged! You will
