

XERO COPY XERO COPY XERO COPY XERO COPY

Nov. 30, 1963
6113 Douglas St.
Fort Worth, Texas

Mr. Jack Rubey
Dallas County Jail
Dallas, Texas

Dear Mr. Ruby:

I felt I must write along with the others to express my views on your actions.

According to the laws of our country, no man is guilty until proven guilty. According to this you had no right to take the life of another man. Then too, two wrongs don't make one right.

I too feel, from what I have heard, that President Kennedy's assassin was Oswald, but the courts, or the law of our land, had not yet proven it and even if they had already, you had not the right to "Play God" and take his or any mans life.

Too much shame had already been brought on Dallas, our country and our laws, you meerly increased it.

However, though many evidenced your murder of Oswald, even you arn't guilty until proven so by the courts of our land, I believe.

I pity you and other people like you, who condone your actions. I feel everyone who does condone your actions are guilty almost to the point that you are for evil thoughts are almost as bad as evil deeds.

I am not without sin myself so therefore dare not condemn you for your actions. I meerly felt I must write and say "May God's Will Be Done" in this whole terrible thing.

I also feel that though we may not know why the assassination of our President was permitted to