Details of Offense

Compl states about 9pm he was sitting at his desk doing some paper work, and the 1st room in the building, lower floor, when he heard what sounded like a fire cracker explode above his head. He then looked and saw a hole in the wall to the left of where he was sitting. Officer Norvell found the bullet in the next room lying on stack of packages of paper. The bullet entered the window on the west side of the room after passing thru the wooden frame of the window, and passed by compl's head and went completely thru the wall and stopped on top the stacks of paper. Compl was hit in the right arm between elbow and wrist by either 2 slivers from the bullet, or wood, or pieces of glass. Compl states after he looked up and saw the hole and realized what had happened, he ran upstairs and got his pistol, and called police. As he was immediately after he heard the bullet hit, he heard a car leave the parking lot of the ...
