Pre-Cooked Foods Ease Chores of the Summer Camp

By Miss Bennett

The summer camp season is here and with it comes the busy time of preparing meals for the campers. Pre-cooked foods are a great help in this regard. They save a great deal of time and labor, and are especially helpful in the kitchen where the campers are so busy. # Liven Up Breakfast

The key to a good breakfast is to eat it early. It gives you energy and a tremendous boost to your day.

A good breakfast should contain a balance of protein, carbohydrates, and fat. It should also be easy to digest and provide you with the energy you need to get through the day.

For an energy-boosting breakfast, try a serving of whole grains, such as oatmeal or whole wheat bread, topped with fresh fruit and a source of protein, such as eggs or yogurt.

Another great breakfast option is a smoothie. Blend together a banana, a handful of spinach, a cup of yogurt, and a splash of milk for a healthy and delicious start to your day.

WITH EMPLOYMENT

and that is a general rule. You should eat a large breakfast. It gives you energy and a tremendous boost to your day.

Baked Spinach For Casserole

This is a simple and delicious recipe for a baked spinach casserole. It is perfect for a quick and healthy meal.
