I see Premier Khrushchev at the airport - I thought that the days of the "Great Romedy" of Khrushchev at Leningrad had finally well - the general feeling was a local, or local How many were recalled.
I hope all the remnants of the Ninth will be
by some of the old special of the organizing - someone
got inside - or
I will give a
all of this.

Dear mother!
At last we've got your telegram and know that you are at home, safe and sound.
We worried so much about you, we did not know where you were and what was happening to you. Now it's all over.

I miss you very much.
Our big room is so empty now. Our aunts are in different shifts with Nita so in a day time I'm absolutely alone and often think about you. I always remember your
"How's my boy?"

Last Sunday we went to the country to Nick's place. Bunny played in the yard, Nita was sitting with Nick and I went to the forest near the lake (as here we used to walk all). I had the feeling that you were somewhere around. I missed you so much.

Thank you for your present. The sweater is very nice and the colour suits me.

I kiss you many many times. I'm so sorry that you feel
not so well. Give my best wishes to John and your brothers. Yours Leo.
