OPERATIONS MEMORANDUM

TO: Embassy Moscow
FROM: the Department of State
SUBJECT: CITIZENSHIP AND PASSPORTS - Lee Harvey Oswald
RE: Embassy's OX March 28, 1960.

Date: MAY 10 1960

It is believed that by now the Embassy will have received the Department's Operations Memorandum of March 28, 1960 concerning Mr. Oswald.

It is the view of the Department that, as of now, any further action which might be taken should be based upon the specific request of Mr. Oswald or upon a request voluntarily submitted by a member of his family in such form as to indicate that official action is necessary. It is not believed that the Department at this time should propose to a member of Mr. Oswald's family that this case be pursued further along the lines discussed in the communication under reference. The Department nevertheless appreciates the Embassy's continued interest and suggestions.

Unless and until the Embassy comes into possession of information or evidence upon which to base the preparation of a certificate of loss of nationality in the case of Lee Harvey Oswald, there appears to be no further action possible in this case.

An appropriate notice has been placed in the look-out card section of the Passport Office in the event that Mr. Oswald should apply for documentation at a post outside the Soviet Union.

Dear Sir,

Since I have not received a reply to my letter of December 1960, I am writing again asking that you consider my request for the return of my American passport.

I desire to return to the United States, that is if we could come to some agreement concerning the dropping of any legal proceedings against me.

If so, then I would be free to ask the Russian authorities to allow me to leave. If I could show them my American passport, I am of the opinion they would give me an exit visa.

They have at no time insisted that I take Russian citizenship. I am living here

The Embassy is writing to Oswald and suggesting that he come personally to the Embassy for an interview on which to base a decision concerning the status of his American citizenship. Oswald's reference in his letter to his being unable to leave Russia without permission may indicate that he desires to come to the Embassy, in which case an invitation from the Embassy may facilitate his traveling to Moscow. The Embassy would as a last resort, if the Department found no objection and provided the Embassy were reasonably sure that Oswald had not committed an expatriating action, return his American passport to him by mail for what help this may be in facilitating his application for a Soviet exit visa.

The Embassy would like to be informed whether Oswald is subject to prosecution on any grounds should he enter the jurisdiction of the United States and, if so, whether there is any objection in communicating this to him.

Dear Mr. Oswald:

We have received your recent letter concerning your desire to return to the United States. Your earlier letter of December, 1960 which you mentioned in your present letter does not appear to have been received at the Embassy.

Inasmuch as the question of your present American citizenship status can be finally determined only on the basis of a personal interview, we suggest that you plan to appear at the Embassy at your convenience. The consular section of the Embassy is open from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

The Embassy was recently informed by the Department of State that it had received an inquiry from your mother in which she said that she had not heard from you since December, 1959 and was concerned about your whereabouts and welfare.

SUBJECT: CITIZENSHIP AND PASSPORTS: Lee Harvey Oswald

To: The American Embassy, Moscow

The Embassy's Despatch No. 535 of February 23, 1961 concerning Lee Harvey Oswald has been studied with particular reference to the last two paragraphs thereof. Despatch No. 652 of March 24, 1961 concerning him has also been noted.

If and when Mr. Oswald appears at the Embassy, he should be thoroughly questioned regarding the circumstances of his residence in the Soviet Union and his possible commitment of or acts of expatriation and, as contemplated by the Embassy, his statements should be taken under oath. If the Embassy is fully satisfied that he has not expatriated himself in any manner and if he presents evidence that he has arranged to depart from the Soviet Union to travel to the United States, his passport may be delivered to him on a nominal basis only, since it may be delivered for travel purposes only to the United States. For security reasons, the Department does not consider that it would be prudent for the Embassy to forward complete personnel to him by rail.

The Department is not in a position to advise Mr. Oswald whether upon his desired return to the United States he may be unable to prosecution for any possible offenses committed in violation of the laws of the United States or the laws of any of its States.

The developments in the case of Mr. Oswald should be promptly reported. In particular, a report of his travel plans should be submitted when the Embassy receives confirmation of his travel plans.

It may be added that Mrs. Margarite Oswald has been informed of the address given by Mr. Oswald in his recent statement concerning referred to in Despatch No. 537 and of his desire to return to the United States. She has also been appropriately informed in the light of Despatch No. 653.

SUBJECT: CITIZENSHIP AND PASSPORTS: Leo Harvey Oswald

Lee Harvey OSWALD appeared at the Embassy on July 8 on his own initiative in connection with his desire to return to the United States with his wife.

Oswald executed the enclosed questionnaire pertaining to possible expatriating acts and was questioned at length concerning his activities since entering the Soviet Union. No evidence was revealed of any act on his part which might have caused loss of his American citizenship. He exhibited Soviet internal "stateless" passport (vid na zhitelstvo chto litsa bez pravlenija) No. 311179 issued by the Moscow city government on January 14, 1960, which is prima facie evidence that he is regarded by the Soviet authorities as not possessing Soviet citizenship. Oswald stated that despite the wording of the statement which he handed to the Embassy on October 31, 1959 (Embassy despatch 254, November 2, 1959), he never in fact actually applied for Soviet citizenship. His application at that time was for permission to remain in the Soviet Union and for a temporary extension of his tourist visa pending the outcome of his request. This application, according to Oswald, contained no reference to Soviet citizenship, nor did he subsequently make any application for Soviet citizenship. The application was addressed by him to the USSR Supreme Soviet and was placed in the mail box of the Metropole Hotel. It appeared, however, to have been delivered to the central office of the Moscow OTR and apparently was the basis of a notification to him by that office three days later of permission to remain in the Soviet Union. There was subsequently issued his present "stateless" internal passport.

Oswald stated that he has been employed since January 13, 1960, in the Belorussian Radio and TV Factory in Minsk, where he works as a metal worker in the research shop. He stated that he took no oath or affirmation or allegiance of any kind nor was he required to sign any kind of papers in connection with his employment. He gave his earnings as 90 rubles per month. He stated that he is not a member of the factory trade union organization, never having been asked to join.

Oswald stated that he had never been called upon to make any statements for radio or press or to address audiences since his arrival in the Soviet Union and that he has made no statements at any time of any exploitable nature concerning his original decision to reside in the Soviet Union. He recalled that he had been interviewed briefly in his room at the Metropole Hotel in Moscow on the third day after his arrival in the Soviet Union by a reporter from Radio Moscow. The reporter represented himself as seeking comments from American tourists on their impressions of Moscow. Oswald stated that he made no more than a few routine comments of a visiting-tourist nature, the whole lasting no more than two or three minutes and of no political significance. When queried about a statement which he had made to the interviewing officer at the time of his first appearance at the Embassy on October 31, 1959, to the effect that he would willingly make available to the Soviet Union such information as he had acquired as a radar operator in the Marine Corps, Oswald stated that he was never in fact subjected to any questioning or briefing by the Soviet authorities concerning his life or experiences prior to entering the Soviet Union, and never provided such information to any Soviet organ. He stated that he doubted in fact that he would have given such information if requested despite his statements made at the Embassy.

Oswald indicated some anxiety as to whether, should he return to the United States, he would face possible lengthy imprisonment for his act of remaining in the Soviet Union. Oswald was told informally that the Embassy did not perceive, on the basis of information in its possession, on what grounds he might be subject to conviction leading to punishment of such severity as he apparently had in mind. It was clearly stated to him, however, that the Embassy could give him no assurance as to whether upon his desired return to the United States he might be liable to prosecution for offenses committed in violation of laws of the United States or of any of its States. Oswald said he understood this. He had simply felt that in his own interest he could not go back to the United States if it meant returning to a number of years in prison, and had delayed approaching Soviet authorities concerning departing from the Soviet Union until he "had this end of the thing straightened out."

Oswald was married on April 30, 1961, to Marina Nikolaevna POKROVSKA, a dental technician. He is attempting to arrange for his wife to join him in Moscow so that she can appear at the Embassy for a visa interview in the next day or two.

Oswald intends to institute an application for an exit visa immediately upon his return to Minsk within the next few days. His American passport was returned to him for this purpose after having been awarded to be valid for direct return to the United States only. The possession of a foreign passport or similar travel document is typically a prerequisite to being permitted to file an application for a Soviet exit visa and it was felt that there was little prospect that Oswald could accomplish anything with the Soviet officials concerned unless he displayed his American passport. Oswald's present passport expires on September 10, 1961, and it is our intention not to renew it without the Department's prior approval of the enclosed renewal application, and then only upon evidence of a present need for the renewal in connection with his efforts to return to the United States.

Twenty months of the realities of life in the Soviet Union have clearly had a maturing effect on Oswald. He stated frankly that he had learned a hard lesson the hard way and that he had been completely relieved of his illusions about the Soviet Union at the same time that he acquired a new understanding and appreciation of the United States and the meaning of freedom. Much of the arrogance and bravado which characterized him on his first visit to the Embassy appears to have left him. He stated that he is in contact with his mother and a brother in the United States. He stated that he had about 200 rubles and that he and his wife would save more for eventual costs of traveling to the United States.

Action Requested: The Department's action is requested on the enclosed application for renewal of Oswald's passport. If approved, it is requested that the Embassy be authorized to renew Oswald's passport at its discretion.

SUBJECT: CITIZENSHIP AND PASSPORTS: Lee Harvey Oswald

The Embassy received on May 25, 1961 an undated letter from Lee Harvey Oswald postmarked Minsk, May 16, 1961, in which he states in part that he is asking "full guarantees that I shall not, under any circumstances, be persecuted for any act pertaining to this case" should he return to the United States, that if this "condition" cannot be met he will "endeavor to use my relatives in the United States to see about getting something done in Washington." According to the letter, Oswald is married to a Russian woman who would want to accompany him to the United States. The text of the letter is contained in Enclosure 1.

In view of the possibility that the Department may receive further inquiries from Oswald's mother or from other persons in his behalf concerning his case, the Embassy would be glad to have the Department's comments before replying to Oswald. The Embassy proposes to reply to Oswald, drawing upon the language of the third paragraph of the Department's A-173, that should he be found not to have lost American citizenship, he would be entitled to return to the United States under the laws and regulations applicable to all American citizens and that the Embassy is not in a position to advise him whether in the event of his return he may be subject to prosecution for possible offenses committed in violation of the laws of the United States or of any of the States. The Embassy's reply would also reiterate that the final determination of Oswald's claim to American citizenship could only be made on the basis of a personal interview and that he is free to visit the Embassy whenever he desires. The reply would include the Embassy's proposed information sheets explaining the requirements and procedures pertaining to his wife's intended immigration. Oswald would also be informed of the necessity for him and his wife to apply to the Soviet authorities for permission to leave the Soviet Union and would be invited to inform the Embassy if he had done so.

The reference in Oswald's letter to his present Soviet internal passport in which he is apparently designated as "without citizenship" is, if accurate, prima facie indication that the Soviet government does not regard him as possessing Soviet citizenship. It would appear on this basis that Oswald has not yet expatriated himself under Section 319(a)(1) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

The Embassy has noted that the Department did not consider it prudent to forward Oswald's passport to him by mail. The Embassy also feels that it would be neither prudent nor appropriate in this case to return Oswald's passport to him without the normal physical and legal safe-guards provided by the requirement that he appear at the Embassy for a personal interview. Should circumstances arise which make it desirable to provide Oswald with a passport or certificate of identity, under circumstances other than the foregoing, the Embassy will request the Department's prior advice. Does the Department consider that Oswald is entitled to the protection of the United States Government while he continues to reside abroad under present circumstances in the absence of reasonable evidence that he has committed an expatriating act?

*Dear Sirs:

"In regards to your letter of March 24. I understand the reasons for the necessity of a personal interview at the Embassy, however, I wish to make it clear that I am asking not only for the right to return to the United States, but also for full guarantees that I shall not, under any circumstances, be persecuted for any act pertaining to this case. I made that clear from my first letter, although nothing has been said, even vaguely, concerning this in my correspondence with the Embassy. Unless you honestly think that this condition can be met, I see no reason for a continuation of our correspondence, instead I shall endeavor to use my relatives in the United States, to see about getting something done in Washington.

"As for coming to Moscow, this would have to be on my own initiative and I do not care to take the risk of getting into a awkward situation unless I think it worthwhile. Also, since my last letter I have gotten married.

"My wife is Russian, born in Leningrad, she has no parents living and is quite willing to leave the Soviet Union with me and live in the United States.

"I would not leave here without my wife so arrangements would have to be made for her to leave at the same time as I do.

"The marriage stamp was placed on my passport, after some trouble with the authorities, so my status as far as the USSR is concerned, is the same as before, that is "without citizenship."

"So with this extra complication I suggest you do some checking up before advising me further.

"I believe I have spoken frankly in this letter. I hope you do the same in your next letter.

SUBJECT: CITIZENSHIP AND PASSPORTS: Lee Harvey Oswald

To: The American Embassy MOSCOW

Further study has been given to the case of Mr. Oswald in the light of the Embassy's Despatch No. 806 of May 26, 1961.

Mr. Oswald's mother has been informed to the effect that her son has not yet visited the Embassy and that he has informed the Embassy that he has married a Russian woman.

The Department concurs with the Embassy in its proposed reply to Mr. Oswald, as indicated in the second paragraph of Despatch No. 806.

It is noted that while Mr. Oswald is in possession of a Soviet internal passport he apparently is designated therein as "without citizenship." It is not entirely clear what this designation is intended to infer, i.e. whether he is without Soviet citizenship or without any citizenship. In any event in the absence of evidence showing that Mr. Oswald has definitely lost United States citizenship he apparently maintains that technical status. Whether he is entitled to the protection of the United States pending any further developments concerning his precise status is a matter which will be left to the Embassy's discretion in the event an emergency situation should arise. In a situation of this kind, not of an emergency nature, the facts should be submitted to the Department.

It is noted that the Embassy intends to seek the Department's prior advice before granting Mr. Oswald documentation as a United States citizen upon any application he may submit.

The Embassy's careful attention to the involved case of Mr. Oswald is appreciated. It is assumed that there is no doubt that the person who has been in communication with the Embassy is the person who was issued a passport in the name of Lee Harvey Oswald.

TO: Embassy MOSCOW

FROM: The Department of State

SUBJECT: CITIZENSHIP AND PASSPORTS - Lee Harvey Oswald

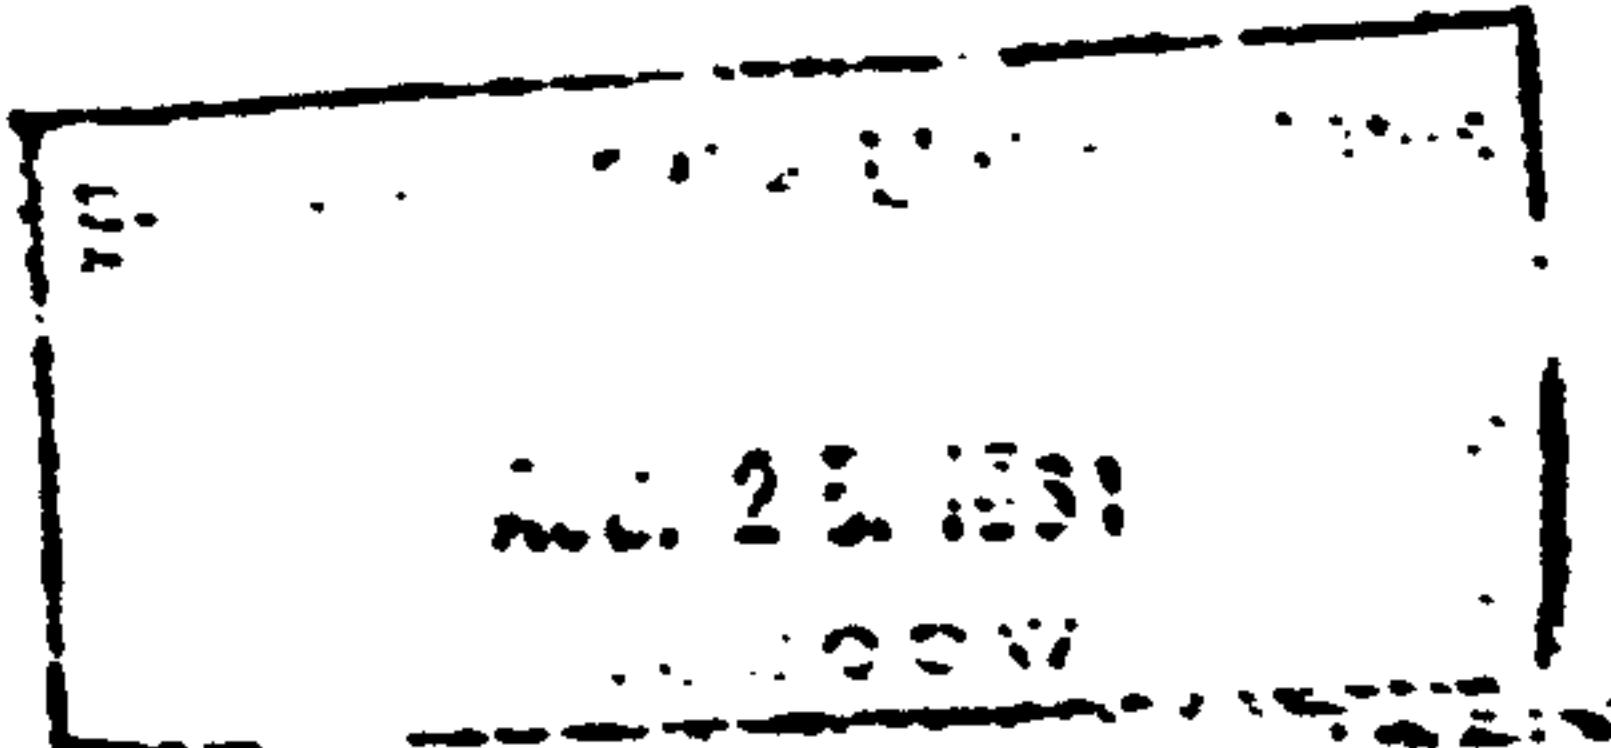

REF: Embassy's Despatch No. 29, July 11, 1961 and passport renewal application, July 10, 1961, with questionnaire.

Date: AUG 18 1961

We concur in the conclusion of the Embassy that there is available no information and/or evidence to show that Mr. Oswald has expatriated himself under the pertinent laws of the United States.

The renewal of Mr. Oswald's passport, issued on September 10, 1959 is authorized upon his referenced application, if no adverse reason is known, to take place upon his presentation of evidence that he needs such renewal in connection with his efforts to return to the United States, as indicated in the final sentence on page 2 of Despatch No. 29. As requested in the final paragraph of the despatch, the Embassy may perform this citizenship function for Mr. Oswald at its discretion.

Any passport renewal granted to Mr. Oswald should be limited to his passport needs and, as stated in the second paragraph of the Department's A-173, April 13, 1961 his passport should be made valid for direct return to the United States. The additional precaution set forth in the same paragraph should be observed and his passport should be delivered to him on a personal basis only. When available, a report of his travel data should be submitted, as well as a report of any intervening developments.

SUBJECT: CITIZENSHIP AND PASSPORTS: Lee Harvey Oswald

The Embassy received on March 20, 1961 the following letter from Lee Harvey Oswald postmarked Minsk March 5 and Moscow March 17:

*Dear Sirs:

In reply to your recent letter. I find it inconvenient to come to Moscow for the sole purpose of an interview.

In my last letter I believe I stated that I cannot leave the city of Minsk without permission.

I believe there exist in the United States also a law in regards to resident foreigners from Socialist countries, traveling between cities.

I do not think it would be appropriate for me to request to leave Minsk in order to visit the American Embassy. In any event, the granting of permission is a long drawn out affair, and I find that there is a hesitation on the part of local officials to even start the process.

I have no intention of abusing my position here, and I am sure you would not want me to.

I see no reasons for any preliminary inquiries not to be put in the form of a questionnaire and sent to me.

I understand that personal interviews undoubtedly make to work of the Embassy staff lighter, than written correspondence, however in some cases other means must be employed.

Sincerely,

/s/ Lee H. Oswald*

We have written to Oswald advising him that it is the position of the Soviet Government that they interpose no objections or obstacles to visits to the Embassy by American citizens in the Soviet Union and suggesting that he use the Embassy's letter in applying to the authorities in Minsk for permission to travel to Moscow. Oswald was informed that in order for the Embassy to make a determination of his American citizenship status, a personal interview would be required at which pertinent statements could be taken from him under oath before a consular officer.

MEMORANDUM

Nov. 27, 1963

To: Mr. Thomas Ehrlich

From: FSO John A. McVicker ✓

Subject: Lee Harvey OSWALD

You asked me to submit a written memorandum regarding anything I know personally about Oswald and his dealings with the American Embassy in Moscow in 1959, 1960 and 1961.

First I should note that, while I was one of two officers in the consular section of the Embassy during this period, I did not myself handle the case and my contact with it was therefore peripheral. Moreover, to the extent that anything I have to say here conflicts with the record as reported by the Embassy at the time, the latter should be taken as nearer fact.

In addition to myself I know of the following other persons who were in contact with Oswald in Moscow:

- 1.) Consul Richard E. Snyder, who handled the matter during 1959-61 and who is I believe now in Japan.
- 2.) Consul Joseph Korhury who handled the case after 1961 for the Embassy and who is now assigned to the Foreign Service Institute of the Department.
- 3.) Mrs. Verma Deane (Stanley) Brown, who acted as the confidential secretary for the consular section during most of this period and who is now an employee of the Department of Agriculture.
- 4.) Miss Priscilla Johnson, who was at the time a correspondent for the North American Newspaper Alliance in the Soviet Union. She had a long interview with Oswald in his hotel in an effort to get his story and to persuade him to return to the United States.
- 5.) Mr. Rud Korngold, UPI correspondent, who is I believe still in the Soviet Union.

In my memory the following is a general description of the case: Oswald came into the Embassy immediately after his arrival from the Soviet Union from the United States. He turned in his passport and said that he wanted to renounce his American citizenship and remain in the Soviet Union. His passport was retained, but his renunciation was not accepted. He remained a few days in Moscow staying at the Metropole Hotel and was in contact with the Soviet authorities and with at least the two American correspondents named above (4)&(5). He then disappeared and was next heard from some weeks later from Minsk where he said he was working in an electronics plant. He eventually wrote again and said that he had married a Soviet girl.

and wished to return to the United States. He still later came to the Embassy for an interview in this connection in July, 1961. Many months later the Soviet Government finally gave him and his wife permission to depart and the Embassy was authorized by the Department to renew his American passport and to give his wife an immigration visa, whereupon they departed for the United States. I believe that this was in the spring of 1962, but I am not sure of this since I myself departed from Moscow in September, 1961.

My personal contact with the matter was actually only at the time that Oswald first came to the Embassy in the October, 1959. At this time I shared the same office with Mr. Snyder and was present in the room during the his interview with Oswald. As I recall the interview may have lasted an hour or so. Oswald was extremely arrogant, truculent and unfriendly to America and Americans in general. He wanted to disentangle himself of his citizenship forthwith. His reasons were not too clear, but he gave the impression of being very angry about something or things which had happened to him during his childhood or during his duty in the Marine Corps. He said, however, that he was a "Marxist" and that he had become disgusted with American "imperialism" as he had observed it in operation in the Far East while in the Marines. He gave evidence of some education in the rudiments of Communist dogma and he apparently had some knowledge of the legalities involved in the renunciation of citizenship. He also did state that while in the Marines he had worked with radar and that he would turn over everything he knew about it to the Soviet military authorities. In the mind's of those concerned at the time, this statement tended to extinguish any sympathy one may have felt for a confused and unhappy young man. Mr. Snyder did not accept his renunciation of citizenship on this occasion because it is not prescribed procedure to permit those things to be done hastily. Moreover, there had been a case immediately previous in which a man had renounced his citizenship and then wanted it back a week later. (This case involved one Petrulli, who as it turned out had a medical record of mental ailment). I recall having a few words with Oswald at the time, but I don't remember what was said. After Oswald left the Embassy on this occasion I had no direct personal contact with the matter, but followed it in conversations with my colleague, Mr. Snyder, and with the above named correspondents. As to fact, I have nothing further to add except what appears in the records or what may be better obtained from other parties involved.

Based on my impressions of Oswald, as I recall them, and on my general experience in consular work in the Soviet Union, I have these comments:

I recall thinking at the time that Oswald was behaving with a great deal of determination and purpose for such a young and relatively uneducated person. He was certainly very independent and fearless in a rather blind way and it seemed to me that he could have acquired all these ideas himself and could have planned his prompt trip to the USSR after release from the Marines and his attempted renunciation of citizenship. On the other hand, there also seemed to me to be the possibility that he was following a pattern of behaviour which he had been tutored by person or persons unknown. For example, in discussing Marxism and the legalities of renunciation he seemed to be using words which he had learned but did not fully understand. His determined statements in rather long words were not entirely consistent and not in a fully logical sequence. I am sorry that I do not remember examples but only this impression. Of course, this could have been because he had merely studied books himself without understanding what they meant, or but it seemed that it could also have been that he had been taught to say things which he did not really understand. In short, it seemed to me that there was a possibility that he had been in contact with others before or during his Marine Corps tour who had guided him,唆 and encouraged him in his actions.

In regard to his sanity, of course, not being an expert in this field one cannot say much. However, it did seem to me that his unqualified distaste for America and Americans was irrational in that it exceeded anything that could possibly have been justified. And this was my impression at the time and is not a ~~exact~~ projection of present feelings into the past. Furthermore the reasoning which he gave for this feeling was by no means clear and his thinking seemed quite muddled. I am not sure what a "persecution complex" is in the technical sense, but he seemed as though he might have one.

In conclusion, I may add that to the best of my memory I recognized the photographs which I have seen of Oswald in the newspapers as the same man who came into the Embassy under that name in October, 1959.

NOTE FOR OSWALD FILE

Nov. 9, 1959

I took a typed copy of the message from McV down to the Metropole Hotel today to deliver to Oswald. I went directly to the room (233) and knocked several times, but no one answered. The cleaning lady told me that he was in the room and only came out to go to the toilet. She suggested that I ask the doorman in charge of the floor. The latter told me that he was not in his room. I decided not to leave the message, but to have it sent by registered mail. On the way out I phoned from downstairs, but no answer.
