The New Era

IN MINSK THERE WAS A 35 FT. ~~ST. MONUMENT~~ MONUMENT TO STALIN WHICH STOOD EVEN AFTER THE FIRST DENUNCIATION OF STALIN BY KHRUSHCHEV, UNLIKE THE MONUMENT OF STALIN IN Leningrad WHICH WAS TAKEN DOWN IMMEDIATELY. THIS IMPRESSIVE BRONZE AND MARBLE STRUCTURE HAS STOOD FOR AS LONG AS IT HAS DUE TO THE EFFORTS OF RICHARD STALINIST SUCH AS COLN. PETRO-KOFR ^{HEAD} ~~THE~~ OVER. OFFICE IN MINSK AND OTHERS. HOWEVER, AFTER THE 22ND CONGRESS MEETING WHEN KHRUSHCHEV AGAIN DENUNCIATED STALIN, ON NOV. 5. TWO DAYS BEFORE THE NOV. 7 REVOLUTIONARY CELEBRATIONS, A FORCE OF 100 MEN DESCENDED UPON THE STALIN SQUARE ~~FOR~~ (NOW LEIN SQUARE) AND WITH BULLDOZERS AND PILEDRIVER ~~THEY~~ COMMENCED TO TEAR UP (NOT SALVAGE) THE STRUCTURE. THEY MUST HAVE BEEN VERY ENTHUSIASTIC BECAUSE NEXT DAY THEY HAD REMOVED THE 10 TON BRONZE ~~ST.~~ FIGURE OF A MAN REVERED BY THE OLDER GENERATION AND LAUGHED AT BY THE SARCASTIC YOUNGER GENERATION.

THE MOST REMARKABLE THING ABOUT THE DESTRUCTION OF THIS GIANT MONUMENT WAS THAT WORK WAS CEASED ON THE 6TH OF NOVEMBER, BUT STARTED AGAIN ON THE 23RD THE VERY DAY THE BIG PARADE OF KOLLECTORS CAME BY. THE MONUMENT WAS RIGHT ACROSS FROM THE REVIEWING STAND AND IT WAS built to be.

In full view of all the dignitaries and workers going by the destruction of Stalin and the symbolic descending of Stalinism ~~was~~ (frustrated hope) was concluded.

But Belarussia as in Stalin's native Georgia is still a stronghold of Stalinism.

and a revival of Stalinism is a very very possible thing in those two republics.

Dear Glick,

I did send you a letter at the very beginning of August. It must have come to you by now. So I hope this letter is the second one.

Everything here is OK. (except the weather, which is really nasty). I'm having my holiday now.

I have nothing to read in English. Waiting for your books. The books you wrote to have sent to me didn't come yet. I wonder if they have lost them at post. It would be a pity. I'm too glad to any English book you know.

Will you acknowledge the first letter you receive from me?

I think if it would be right to send you any books now, that I don't know they reach you. There was nobody wrong with the address for I was very careful about it.

My best regards to all you there.

Miss Marina and June.

Your friend, Erick.

P.S. I saw Nella the other day. She asked me about you. I told her that you were O.K. She was married and going to leave for somewhere to work at school. She sends her best regards to you.

Dear Alack,

I've got all your
letters and none of the packages.

I went over Zeleni the other day. They got some books and magazines from you.

It's rather dull without you here.
Almost nobody to speak to. Some weeks ago I was to a meeting with English students.
They were peace marchers. They were a few for boys only so anyone was immediately captured by a dozen of chattering Russian girls. I managed to get close to some of the Brits and spoke to them. They said
I had a very good accent (English accent).

It's very nice you can subscribe Russian news papers in there so I need not send them
to you.

I saw Mura. She told me she got a package from your wife and sent her best regards to her. I asked her to write.

1941

Do you remember that tall boy
 fair-haired girl from the Conservatory?
 We were at the 'Eugene Oregon' performance with her at Haprog. I go on seeing her and she asked me about you. I said you were O.K. He said you were a very charming boy. He liked you. (Don't say that to your wife).

Well, I still finish this letter now.
 I set for French. Is it possible to get a French text book for English speaking people there? I'd like to have one.
 I think, I'll send a book to you to see what happens.

My best wishes to Marina.

Your friend, Erik.

Dear Mike,

Your letters came two weeks ago. I also got the letter for Inna (first one) and it is so nice. We delighted to see your face in the photo. I was glad to hear you had trouble there and I hope you had a good time. I was to the point that month so I couldn't answer at once. You wrote you sent me books. You are really nice that.

Now that you let (do it) I have English practice at all! Why should you stay for a year more? I have been looking for an Englishman, American, or Canadian all the time but there isn't seem to be any of them here. I can only listen to your recorded voice with all the mispronunciations of yours. I think there haven't been any similar changes here since you left so

I have on month of holiday which
I hope to spend somewhere hiking.
In three or four days I'll be

My best regards to you all.
Kiss your June.

Your friend, Eric.

JESUIT HOUSE OF STUDIES

3959 LOYOLA LANE
MOBILE, ALABAMA

July 6, 1963

Dear Lee and Moreno:

Here at the House of Studies during the summer months we have a series of lectures on various subjects given by different persons from the neighboring areas. These subjects usually deal with art, literature, economics, religion, politics, etc. We usually have a speaker every one or two weeks on a Saturday or Sunday night. Since we are studying philosophy, most of us are interested in the various phases of Communism, as this is a very timely and practical subject.

We were hoping that you might come over to talk to us about contemporary Russia and the practice of Communism there. A number of speakers have already been contacted and have definite dates on which they will speak. The best time for us to have you speak, if you are willing, is on Saturday night, July 27. The talk usually begins at 7:00 and lasts for about an hour. Then there is a five minute intermission and the speaker returns for a question period which may last a half-hour or so. When I say that we would like to have you speak on contemporary Russia and the practice of Communism there, this is only a general idea of mine. Of course we want you to choose whatever topic you like concerning your travels in Russia and to present the talk and its material in whatever way you like. It can be as informal as you like and a narration of your own observations. In other words, don't feel that it ought to be very formal and theoretical. Also, when I say that the talks usually last for an hour, I don't mean that it has to be that long. This is rather by way of a time limit. You may use whatever notes you may wish to prepare. In short, do it the way you feel you want to do it and be assured that we want you to feel at home in talking to us.

We have about 90 men who are studying philosophy in the House. Usually about 25 or so will attend these talks. We hope that you will accept our invitation and I think you will find it a good experience, as I'm sure we will too. Most of us are about your age.

I wrote my family today telling them that I planned to invite you for this occasion. They had already told me on their last visit that they hoped to invite you to come over with them when they came here sometime. I asked them if they wouldn't mind arranging to make a visit here for the same occasion so that you could come together. I told them that I would ask you to call them to make plans about this or else for them to call you. Of course we hope Moreno will come too.

You can let me know what you think about the matter and ask any further questions you may want to know about the situation. Drop me a line when you get a chance.

Sincerely,

Gene

Dear Mr. Oswald:

This is just a very brief note to express my thanks for the talk you gave us on Russia Saturday, July 27th. I feel that I came away from your talk with an understanding of the Russian people as a people, with ideals, goals, problems--normal, everyday human beings, something that is quite easy to forget with all the threats of war hanging in the air. I find your talk has helped to make me a broader and deeper person, more universal and sympathetic in my thinking. I hope in the future both America and Russia can draw closer to one another and thereby increase in friendship and understanding.

I also wish to tell you that I greatly admire your search for truth and your living in Russia, and I hope you have or will find it.

You can be assured of a permanent remembrance in my prayers and sacrifices, you, your wife, and your family.

With sincere gratitude,

Lee Oswald,

Peter Gregory gave me permission to leave this letter with him in his office. If you should return, he kindly consented to give it to you.

As I'm sure you know by now, I would like to talk with you. It is not my intent to stir the embers of your personal controversy or to subject you to ridicule. I do not pretend, either, to offer exoneration for what you did, because I do not know why you did it or how you feel.

But whatever your reason for defecting, I think people can be made to understand it. It seems apparent that your reason for leaving no longer outweighs your desire to live in America.

You would be surprised how many people still link the name Lee Oswald with "traitor" and "turncoat." You will find in your search for employment that those who don't remember the name nevertheless will think of some excuse for not hiring you when they learn your background.

Personally, I do not condemn blindly. And I do not believe in trial by newspaper. I do believe that where sympathy ends, understanding falters.

You are 22, married to a cute girl and have a small child. You come from the plain vanilla strain of people. You are idealistic, want to express yourself, maybe write.

I am 24, married to a cute girl and have a small child. I come from the plain vanilla strain of people. I am idealistic (two years out of college) and am a writer.

We are brothers under the skin. To say you are a traitor would be a terrific blow to my own pride. I believe you are a man of convictions. But I don't know for sure, because I have not been offered a chance even to shake your hand.

Please talk with me, on the phone, in person, at your house or at mine--just talk. Not to give me a chance to take quick notes and write a hurried news story--just to talk. I could help you in marketing any writing you might be working on. As a free-lance writer myself, I happen to know that selling words is like selling anything else: The buyer needs to be teased with a wee taste first. With a "teaser" short for Scripps-Howard's 21 papers, the full meal could well turn out to be a story in a national magazine, even a book and possibly a movie.
