Море электроэнергии.

2700-3000 мара мат в 1980 годв - так решила XXII съезд КПСС

У НАРТЫ ООР 1980 ГОДА

ВООРОС О развитии электростанций, работающих на море в Программе КПСС, рассмотрен на XII съезде партии 23-28 марта 1980 года. Съезд принял решение о развитии в СССР в 1980-1985 годах электростанций, работающих на море. Это решение является важным шагом в развитии электроэнергетики нашей страны.

Одним из основных направлений развития электростанций, работающих на море, является строительство морских электростанций. Это позволит использовать огромные ресурсы нашей страны, расположенной на морском побережье.

В Программе КПСС предусмотрено строительство морских электростанций мощностью до 1000 МВт. Это позволит обеспечить электроэнергией крупные промышленные предприятия, расположенные на морском побережье.

Для строительства морских электростанций необходимо решить ряд технических и экономических задач. Это требует проведения дальнейших исследований и разработок.

Важным условием развития электростанций, работающих на море, является обеспечение безопасности. Это требует создания надежных систем защиты и контроля.

В заключение следует отметить, что развитие электростанций, работающих на море, является одним из приоритетных направлений развития нашей страны. Это позволит обеспечить электроэнергией крупные промышленные предприятия, расположенные на морском побережье.

Four Indicted in Test Of Cuba Travel Ban

The federal grand jury in Brooklyn which for a month has been investigating the recent trip to Cuba by 26 American students, handed down four indictments on Sept. 27. The charges are "conspiring to commit and attempt to commit" the trip.

The announcement of the indictments was made in Washington by Attorney General Robert Kennedy and in the federal prosecutor's office in Brooklyn.

Three of those indicted — Levi Louis 24, Philip Abbott Lave 26 and Stefan Martens, 24, had gone on the trip to Cuba. The fourth defendant, Anatole Schlimmer, 28, did not go.

Two others, Salvatore Carabian, 19, and Elias Ivers Shalin, 20, were named as co-conspirators but were not indicted.

The indictments alleged 21 overt acts of conspiracy, such as organizing a committee to promote the trip, meetings in New York and Buffalo, distribution of application forms etc.

There is no law forbidding travel to Cuba, merely a State Department order. Thus the prosecution had to base the indictment on the prohibited nature of a

Civil Rights Forces Seek New Ways to Press Fight

By William Bradford Huie
A serious crisis around the rights leaders has developed and a great debate has sprung in the movement since the Birmingham and Montgomery events. The Birmingham events and the Kennedy administration's reaction in the face of them have made it apparent that the movement led by Martin Luther King Jr. has reached a dead end and a search is on for new paths.

The debate involves the question of non-violence versus self-defense, political action, the approach to Congress and Kennedy's civil rights bill and tactics of mass demonstrations.

The doctrine of non-violence under all circumstances is now being widely challenged even by those leaders. For example, Bayard Rustin, former of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, declared in Louisville that the Birmingham events have shattered the hope that law and order would be maintained in the face of integration efforts and added:

HOW LONG? Members of the Albany, Ga. Movement say to those who were being jailed during demonstrations last year that despite willingness of 1,200 of them to choose jail and despite refusal

CP Urges Support To Cuban Relief

THE COMMUNIST PARTY of the USA issued the following statement last week in connection with the disaster caused by Hurricane Flora in the Caribbean.

"The devastation caused by Hurricane Flora in Cuba and Haiti, and the great loss of life, possessions and economic hardships have called forth a great wave of solidarity in all parts of the world, including people of our own U.S.

"A number of people's organizations are already moving to collect funds, food, clothing and urgently needed medicines. Trade unions have announced donations as an expression of humanity and solidarity.

"We call upon all workers and friends to be in the forefront of the efforts and to give their organizations for the collection of urgently needed aid.

THE SUPREME COURT'S reversal of the conviction of 652 Negro students arrested at a demonstration in Orangeburg, S. C., three years ago, strikes a blow against the use of state "breach of the peace" statutes against civil rights demonstrators.

The problem in this struggle of segregation, however, is that without a federal law upholding the Justice Department to sue on behalf of a Negro denied his civil rights, the best police and political will in this past record indicate that...

A strong appeal resulted in Monday's victory.

Orangeburg, S.C. Negro college students arrested in 1958 and 1961, a total of 652 persons, were released to their homes by the Supreme Court...

Groups of 100, police and demonstrators leaders, are being all photographed and given their names to the press...
