WHAT IS THE N.Y. SCHOOL FOR MARXIST STUDIES?

The New York School for Marxist Studies was organized four years ago. Its aim is to offer a scientific approach to the central problems facing our nation. The era in which we live has been characterized as the Age of Anxiety, or Conformity, or Cynicism: such titles reflect the growing intellectual and moral dissatisfaction in our country. Ex-President Eisenhower's answer was the appointment of a Committee on National Purpose, which was charged with discovering one, if possible. Our answer is a renewed determination to teach and study Marxism, which we think offers valid answers.

WHAT IS SCOPE?

A number of years ago a Students Committee on Progressive Education—SCOPE—was organized to give an answer to the much heard phrase on the lips of today's youth—"YOUTH WANTS TO KNOW."

Never has knowledge been more necessary for young people than in their search for a place in tomorrow's world. The members of SCOPE believe that all youth—teenagers, college students, young workers—ought to know, and so are trying to provide conditions in which to broaden our knowledge and improve our understanding of this changing, perplexing and exciting age.

SCOPE believes that knowledge can be achieved and intellectual conformity and apathy avoided only through continual study and discussion. All students are encouraged to participate actively, as the goal of SCOPE is to provide a unique opportunity for the study and discussion of Marxism.

With the founding of the N. Y. School for Marxist Studies, SCOPE chose to become an organic part of the School while retaining full autonomy as to its own curriculum. It participates in the conducting of the School as a whole, and simultaneously has full responsibility for its own particular program.

WHO MAY ATTEND; WHO ARE THE TEACHERS?

Any one may attend. The School welcomes everyone, regardless of previous education, of nationality, color, creed, or political belief. The teachers are men and women of considerable experience as teachers and in the labor and progressive movements of our nation. They believe that Marxism is the most enlightening philosophy available for comprehending the world in which we live.

WHAT SUBJECTS ARE TAUGHT?

The School offers courses in economics, politics, history, philosophy, literature, music and other arts.

WHO FINANCES THE SCHOOL?

The students through their course fees are the largest source of income. Expenditures are kept to an absolute minimum. We have no paid personnel nor do we plan on having any during the coming school year. Even so the School cannot exist on the basis of the tuition fees alone; hence we shall attempt a continual program of money-raising through affairs, donations, and other aid undertaken by our students and friends.

FEES

Fees are $6.00 for regular courses (7 sessions, 1½ hours per session). For double courses (7 sessions, 3 hours per session) the fee is $10.00. For college and high school students the fee is $5.00 per course; $8.00 for a double course. Fees are payable in full at registration; where this entails hardship, half payment will be accepted at registration with full payment to be completed not later than the third session of the class. Scholarships are offered, both partial and complete. Ask for a scholarship application at the office.

BOOKS

The School maintains a book shop in the office (Room 1922) where books for all classes will be on sale.

EXTENSION CLASSES

Where 10 people or more wish to attend a class but have difficulty in coming to the central School, extension classes, taught by members of the School Faculty, will be organized. The fees for such classes will be the same as at the School itself, plus the instructor's fare. Arrangements for such Extension Classes may be made at the office.

LECTURES, FORUMS AND CONFERENCES

The School will sponsor a number of lectures, forums and conferences from time to time on questions of special interest.

August 19, 1963

Dear Leo:

This morning I was speaking with one of our professors who heard the talk you gave to us. He thought that you made a number of good points. One of these was your criticism of speculation in the capitalist system. He equated stock speculation with gambling. It seems to be another form of it. Another point was your criticism of exploitation which occurs in capitalism. On both these points, speculation and exploitation, the Pope has spoken strongly against them in the past 70 years.

On the other hand, the professor to whom I am referring thought that you hadn't made sufficient application. Applying the criticism of speculation and exploitation in our country, it seems that these things are regulated. In the instances where certain individuals do overstep their bounds, it seems that such occurrences are practically inevitable in a free society. If we are going to have freedom rather than strict regimentation, then the government will naturally find it very difficult to curb all abuses. The difficulty with communism is that it suppresses freedom, as you indicated, in order to obtain efficiency.

You mentioned that there are good and bad points in each system and that possibly the best system would be a fusion of the good points of both capitalism and communism, something approaching socialism. It seems that socialism might work in a small society but again, when we apply this to our own country, it appears that we are very complex and that it would be very difficult for the government sufficiently to control such a complex society as ours along the lines of socialism. Also here again, socialism means the sacrifice of freedom in practice if it is going to work. Freedom seems to be a fundamental human value precious to every man. I think that freedom can be retained and yet we can still have a just economic, political and social system. Of course this requires that each man live up to the obligations and responsibilities of respecting the freedom of other men and exercising his own freedom in a just way. Perhaps it is more difficult to achieve a just social order by relying on individuals to show initiative and responsibility in respecting rights and living up to duties, but it seems that a society based on respect for justice and individual worth is much more lasting and solidly founded and more in accord with man's nature.

The Pope's beginning with Leo XIII in 1891 and continuing up to the present day have given considerable thought and energy in trying to think through to a solution of economic and social and political abuses. You might get some ideas from the enclosed article as to how the Pope has been trying to work out the problem as well as how stimulation to your own thinking on the matter.

That's about it for now. Give my regards to Marina.

Sincerely,

Paul

Fort Worth Man Asks Red Citizenship

Bets!

Passport Turned in At Moscow

BY JACK DOUGLAS.
Lee Harvey Oswald, 20-year-old ex-marine from Fort Worth in Moscow, turned in his American passport and asked for Soviet citizenship Saturday morning.

Oswald, whose mother and brother live here, strode into the American embassy, according to Star-Telegram wire service reports, slipped down his passport on the consul's desk and said, "I have made up my mind. I'm through."

His mother is Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, a widow who lived at 1008 Bristol Rd. until about two months ago, a brother, R. L. Oswald, lives at 7313 Davenport. Oswald's decision, even his presence in Russia, came as a big surprise to his family here.

Thursday Morning, January 7, 1960

OSWALD 'OK' when you could read to and read with it City Mother Gets ^{check} Note From Russia

A skimpy note from Russia built new hope Wednesday for a Fort Worth mother, Mrs. Marguerite Oswald.

Mrs. Oswald received an air mail letter from her son, Lee Oswald, 20, who went to Russia last fall in quest of Soviet citizenship.

The letter wasn't very informative — just personal phrases. "How are you . . . I'm okay."

But Mrs. Oswald was cheered to know her son is safe.

Mrs. Oswald said, "To me this is an answer. I never knew whether I would ever hear from him again. I will hear from him now."

The letter carried three Russian stamps, but Mrs. Oswald was unable to determine where in the Soviet Union it had been mailed.

A notation on the letter — "12-21-59" — leads Mrs. Oswald to believe the letter was mailed Dec. 21. There is no return address on the letter, but content hints that he still is in Moscow.

When Oswald first went to Russia, his mother wired Secretary of State Christian Heter, asking him aid. She has had no reply.

Aid Offered.
Mrs. Oswald expressed her thought Wednesday that every one is entitled to his own life, right or wrong.

She added, however, that if her son ever expressed a desire to return home because he had made a mistake, she would make further moves to aid him.

Happier because of the note the mother said, "There is the kind people who have worried and hoped along with me since he went over there."

Pamphlet Case
Sentence Given

Lee Oswald, 20, Fort Worth mother, was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 or serve 30 days in jail on a charge of disturbing the peace by creating a riot at the back of Central District police at 4:15 p.m. Jan. 6.

Police were called to the scene when three Oswalds reportedly tried to stop Oswald, Monday.

Police stated the Oswalds had disturbed the peace were dropped in the court.

JUST A KID

Texan in Russia: He Wants to Stay

MOSCOW (AP)—A former Marine from Texas told the American Embassy Saturday he had applied for Russian citizenship. Lee Harvey Oswald, 24, of Fort Worth placed his passport on the consul's desk and said: "I have made up my mind (in through.)"

The Embassy urged him not to renounce his citizenship until he was sure the Russians would accept him. Oswald is living at the Metropole Hotel.

Two other Americans have applied for Russian citizenship in three months while visiting Russia. They are Nicholas Petrull of Valley Stream, N.Y., and Robert Webster of Cleveland.

Residents in Fort Worth expressed surprise. "He's just a kid," said a brother-in-law, R. L. Oswald, who is a well-known driver. "I don't know why 'reels in fear' had to be in the Marine or before he went in."

His father died before he was born. The former Marine was described as a heavy boy who "seemed tickled to death when anyone paid any attention to him."

Oswald left the Marines about a month ago, visited Fort Worth and then said he was going to New Orleans to work for a ship-plant firm.

"He said he wanted to leave a perfect focus, lay the spot, but and talked about going to...

Mrs. R. L. Oswald said she... she came to Fort Worth for... and said he was going... Mrs. Oswald said...

"He said he wanted to travel... and talked about going... We said that was a stupid... thing to do."

"This is a stupid thing to... do," she said. "I don't know... why he would do that."

The young Mrs. Oswald said... she didn't know her brother-in-law... very well. "I don't know... why he'd do that."

She said she didn't know... why he'd do that. "I don't... know why he'd do that."

She said she didn't know... why he'd do that. "I don't... know why he'd do that."

She said she didn't know... why he'd do that. "I don't... know why he'd do that."

Brother's Turn to Reds Puzzles Ft. Worth Man

BY LEO STROVER. R. L. Oswald, 24, of 7818 Davenport, elder brother of ex-marine Lee Harvey Oswald of Fort Worth, who turned in his U. S. passport in Moscow Saturday and announced he wanted to become a Soviet citizen, said he doesn't believe the youngster knows what he is doing.

"He's young," the brother said, "and is looking for excitement. I hope he will contact me before he goes through with it. This is weird. I don't believe he knows what he is doing, and even if he gave it some thought, he erred." Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, the youth's mother, went into raptures. She was still in Fort Worth, R. L. said, but he declined to tell newspapermen where. He said the lesson was had enough with...

SHOCKED BY NEWS—R. L. Oswald and his wife, Yada, read about the defection of his brother, Lee Harvey, to the Russians while their daughter, Cathy Marie, too young to understand, looks on.

out having her subjected to questions. United Front International called Lee Oswald, 24, after interviewing him in his Metropole Hotel room in Moscow as saying he "never would return to the United States for any reason." The Texas don't go into detail. But he said his decision was a "political" one. R. L., a dairy deliveryman, was at home in his two-bedroom, white frame house with his wife, Yada, and their daughter, Cathy Marie, when a reporter called. At first, the couple declined to pass for interviews. Mrs. Oswald retired to another room. But she later returned and commented in pass. Her husband, however, repeatedly parried questions about his mother with a terse, "No comment." Later, he admitted the still was in the city, but wouldn't say where. The Star-Telegram learned she has been employed by the King Candy Company, and when promotion manager Stanley Nyberg described her as a hard worker. She came here with her children from New York, he said, and had good references. "She worked hard to provide for her boys... she had her turn in City Park on Page 2."

Mr. Lee H. Oswald

Minsk, U.S.S.R.

Dear Mr. Oswald:

Your letter of 30 January 1962 addressed to the Secretary of the Navy concerning your separation from the Marine Corps Reserve on 13 September 1960 has been referred to me for reply.

A review of your file at this Headquarters reflects that a board of officers was convened by the Commander, Marine Air Reserve Training, Naval Air Station, Glenview, Illinois, for the purpose of determining your fitness to remain a member of the Marine Corps Reserve. Referral of your case to this board was premised on reliable information which indicated that you had renounced your United States citizenship with the intentions of becoming a permanent citizen of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. The Commander, Marine Air Reserve Training, made reasonable effort to inform you of your right to appear before the board in person, representation by counsel of your choice and to present any evidence or statements you believed pertinent to your case.

In the absence of reply from you concerning your rights as noted above, the board, nevertheless, convened and met on 8 August 1960 at which time a recommendation was submitted that you be separated from the Marine Corps Reserve as undesirable. This recommendation was concurred in by the Commander, Marine Air Reserve Training and approved by this Headquarters. Your discharge as undesirable was directed by this Headquarters on 17 August 1960 and effected 13 September 1960.

Your discharge certificate as undesirable is attached. Earlier delivery of your certificate could not be accomplished since your whereabouts previously was unknown.

Sincerely,

R. McC. TOMPKINS

Dear Mr. Oswald:

This is just a very brief note to express my thanks for the talk you gave us on Russia Saturday, July 27th. I feel that I came away from your talk with an understanding of the Russian people as a people, with ideals, goals, problems--normal, everyday human beings, something that is quite easy to forget with all the threats of war hanging in the air. I find your talk has helped to make me a broader and deeper person, more universal and sympathetic in my thinking. I hope in the future both America and Russia can draw closer to one another and thereby increase in friendship and understanding.

I also wish to tell you that I greatly admire you search for truth and your living in Russia, and I hope you have or will find it.

You can be assured of a permanent remembrance in my prayers and sacrifices, you, your wife, and your family.

With sincere gratitude,

Paul Piazza

July 6, 1963

Dear Lee and Moreno:

Here at the House of Studies during the summer months we have a series of lectures on various subjects given by different persons from the neighboring areas. These subjects usually deal with art, literature, economics, religion, politics, etc. We usually have a speaker every one or two weeks on a Saturday or Sunday night. Since we are studying philosophy, most of us are interested in the various phases of Communism, as this is a very timely and practical subject.

We were hoping that you might come over to talk to us about contemporary Russia and the practice of Communism there. A number of speakers have already been contacted and have definite dates on which they will speak. The best time for us to have you speak, if you are willing, is on Saturday night, July 27. The talk usually begins at 7:00 and lasts for about an hour. Then there is a five minute intermission and the speaker returns for a question period which may last a half-hour or so. When I say that we would like to have you speak on contemporary Russia and the practice of Communism there, this is only a general idea of mine. Of course we want you to choose whatever topic you like concerning your travels in Russia and to present the talk and its material in whatever way you like. It can be as informal as you like and a narration of your own observations. In other words, don't feel that it ought to be very formal and theoretical. Also, when I say that the talks usually last for an hour, I don't mean that it has to be that long. This is rather by way of a time limit. You may use whatever notes you may wish to prepare. In short, do it the way you feel you want to do it and be assured that we want you to feel at home in talking to us.

We have about 90 men who are studying philosophy in the House. Usually about 25 or so will attend these talks. We hope that you will accept our invitation and I think you will find it a good experience, as I'm sure we will too. Most of us are about your age.

I wrote my family today telling them that I planned to invite you for this occasion. They had already told me on their last visit that they hoped to invite you to come over with them when they came here sometime. I asked them if they wouldn't mind arranging to make a visit here for the same occasion so that you could come together. I told them that I would ask you to call them to make plans about this or else for them to call you. Of course we hope Moreno will come too.

You can let me know what you think about the matter and ask any further questions you may want to know about the situation. Drop me a line when you get a chance.

Sincerely,

Gene

Lee Oswald,

Peter Gregory gave me permission to leave this letter with him in his office. If you should return, he kindly consented to give it to you.

As I'm sure you know by now, I would like to talk with you. It is not my intent to stir the embers of your personal controversy or to subject you to ridicule. I do not pretend, either, to offer exoneration for what you did, because I do not know why you did it or how you feel.

But whatever your reason for defecting, I think people can be made to understand it. It seems apparent that your reason for leaving no longer outweighs your desire to live in America.

You would be surprised how many people still link the name Lee Oswald with "traitor" and "turncoat." You will find in your search for employment that those who don't remember the name nevertheless will think of some excuse for not hiring you when they learn your background.

Personally, I do not condemn blindly. And I do not believe in trial by newspaper. I do believe that where sympathy ends, understanding falters.

You are 22, married to a cute girl and have a small child. You come from the plain vanilla strain of people. You are idealistic, want to express yourself, maybe write.

I am 24, married to a cute girl and have a small child. I come from the plain vanilla strain of people. I am idealistic (two years out of college) and am a writer.

We are brothers under the skin. To say you are a traitor would be a terrific blow to my own pride. I believe you are a man of convictions. But I don't know for sure, because I have not been offered a chance even to shake your hand.

Please talk with me, on the phone, in person, at your house or at mine--just talk. Not to give me a chance to take quick notes and write a hurried news story--just to talk. I could help you in whatever any writing you might be working on. As a free-lance writer myself, I happen to know that selling words is like selling anything else! The buyer needs to be teased with a wee taste first. With a "teaser" for Scripps-Howard's 21 papers, the full meal could well turn out to be a story in a national magazine, even a book and possibly a profit.
