I think the saddest case of this kind of thing that I ever knew was that of my poor friend Melpomenus Jones, a curate—such a dear young man, and only twenty-three! He simply couldn't get away from people. He was too modest to tell a lie, and too religious to wish to appear rude. Now it happened that he went to

The Priceless Ingredient

In the City of England lived Haskoon, the Wise One, and many people went to him for counsel which he gave freely to all, asking nothing in return. There came to him a young man who had spent much but got little, and said, "Tell me, Wise One, what shall I do to receive the most for that which I spend?" Haskoon answered, "A thing that is bought or sold has no value unless it contains that which cannot be bought or sold. Look for the Priceless Ingredient." "But, what is this Priceless Ingredient?" asked the young man. Spoke then the Wise One: "My son, the Priceless Ingredient of every product is the marketplace to the Honor and Integrity of him who makes it. Consider his name before you buy."
